

September 27 has been declared a National Holiday to celebrate the achievements of Julien Alfred. As a result of this announcement, the School Professional Development Day planned for the 27th will be moved to September 30. So, there will be NO classes for students at ISSL on either September 27 or September 30. The office will be open and teachers working together on the 30th of September.